

Definitions of Korea University Sejong Campus Core Competency

Core Competencies	Sub-Competencies	Definition
Frontier Spirit	Challenging Spirit	Attitude to respond to the difficulties encountered in reality in order to achieve his/her goals of life
	Future Insights	Ability to grasp and predict the future based on both past and current experiences and knowledge
Sharing and Collaboration	Empathy	Ability to understand and accommodate the viewpoint of others by looking at their situation and circumstances
	Social Engagement	Having the cooperative spirit and attitude to solve problems through proactivity and clear understanding of the problem
Pragmatic Practice	Professionalism	Ability to demonstrate professionalism and excellence in workmanship in some areas above a level that ordinary people can achieve
	Problem Solving	Ability to adaptively, efficiently, and functionally deal with a situation in question
Creative Convergence	Innovation	Having an attitude to positively accept new things and to take voluntary actions to handle achievement and change
	Creativity	Not adhering to stereotypes, creating new ideas, and the ability to apply ideas and concepts through fusion over a wide variety of disciplines
Global Leadership	Global Mind	Ability to view the world from a wide range of perspectives, without prejudice against other cultures
	Global Communication	Ability to eliminate prejudice against people from other cultural backgrounds and develop one's own multifaceted viewpoint